Ivory Values

Dedication

We are dedicated to our customers' success and their ability to leverage our software to improve their leasing and loan portfolios.

Expertise

Ivory has one of the most comprehensive and deep collectives of lease and loan pricing, modeling, and analytical experts in the world.

Profitability

When it comes to lease and loan portfolios, businesses don't mess around. Our customers don't just want us to be successful – they require it.

Ethics

Ethics doesn't just mean doing what is right, it also means telling clients and team members what they need to hear instead of what they want to hear, and putting our clients' and co-workers' best interests first.

History

Chris Ivory founded Ivory Consulting Corporation in 1983 with the idea of building lease analysis software on PCs. In 1985, Steve Hays-Lohrey joined Ivory as a programmer, and soon after, Chris and Steve produced the first version of SuperTRUMP, the successor to the original application developed by Chris. After 35 years, Ivory is still the leading provider of equipment lease and loan software and services. Ivory is a privately held company headquartered in Walnut Creek, CA.
